The Return of the Light

The war had been fought for as far back as the chronicles told, yet there was a legend from farther back. It told of a future time when the moon would move from its position blocking the sun, and the rays of golden light would fall again to the war-torn lands of Syrus. The legend was true. Through the magical efforts of the dwarven wizard Bardoch and his conclave of blue robes, the evil enchantments that held the moon in place were weakened, and the first rays of light shone through. To the dwarves, it was a sign...A sign for war!

Blood Dawn is a full line of fantasy figurines, with dwarves, orcs, goblins, and a host of other races and creatures. Will you join the fight to restore the light, or strive to return the lands of Syrus to its eternal night?
